

Business is on a roll for Strider toddler bicycle

Written by Mongoose Bikes

Friday, 28 January 2011 10:52 -

Strider Sports International, the toddler bicycle company founded in Rapid City by Ryan McFarland just three years ago, has now sold more than 100,000 bikes, and McFarland believes he is on track to be selling 1 million per year by 2014.