

Japan Bicycle Retailer's Sales Triple as Commuters Haunted by Earthquake

Written by Mongoose Bikes

Monday, 18 April 2011 12:16 -

Tokyo residents haunted by the memory of how the March 11 earthquake shut the world's busiest subway system are returning to bicycle travel, tripling the sales of retailer Asahi Co. in the area last month.